Form Instructions

Purpose.

Saint Louis University must get your correct identifying number to file Form 1098-T, Tuition Statement, with the IRS and to furnish a statement to you. This will be your Social Security number (SSN) or, if you are not eligible to obtain an SSN, your individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Form 1098-T contains information about qualified tuition and related expenses to help determine whether you, or the person who can claim you as a dependent, may take either the tuition and fees deduction or claim an education credit to reduce Federal income tax. For more information, see IRS Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Higher Education.

Under federal law, you are required to provide the requested information.

Section 1.

Enter your name and mailing address. The name should match that used by the Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service. Enter your Saint Louis University Student ID.

Section 2.

Taxpayer identification number. Enter your SSN or ITIN. If you do not have an SSN or ITIN, apply for one and fill out and return this form when you receive it.

Sign your name in the space provided to confirm the information provided. The Office of the University Registrar cannot change your records without your signature.

Section 3.

Please fill out this section only if you are unwilling or unable to provide a taxpayer identification number. Check either the first or second box and sign the statement. By law, Saint Louis University must ask you at least once a year for your taxpayer identification number in order to meet its obligation to file Form 1098-T.

Deliver or mail the completed form to the address provided. Do not email the form. Email is not a secure way to transmit personal information.

Penalties

Failure to furnish correct SSN. If you fail to furnish your correct SSN or ITIN to Saint Louis University, the IRS may impose a penalty up to $100 unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Misuse of SSNs. If Saint Louis University discloses or uses your SSN in violation of Federal law, Saint Louis University may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.
